

10-12 Month Milestones Checklist

	Yes	No
Motor
Releases objects into a container with a large opening
Uses thumb and pointer finger to pick up tiny objects
Pulls to stand and cruises along furniture
Moves in and out of various positions to explore environment and get desired toy
Maintains balance in sitting when throwing objects
Claps hands
Stands alone and takes several steps while holding on Sensory
Enjoys listening to songs
Explores toys with fingers and mouth
Crawls to or away from objects baby sees in the distance
Communication
Meaningfully uses "mama" or "dada"
Imitates speech sounds
Babbling has sounds and rhythms of speech
Responds to "no"
Responds to simple directions, eg. "come here"
Pays attention to where you are looking and pointing
Produces long string of gibberish in social communication
Says one or two words consistently
Begins using hand movements to communicate wants/needs (reach to be picked up)
Feeding
Finger feeds self
Eating an increased variety of foods
Begins to use as open cup
Enjoys a greater variety of smells and tastes
Chews using emerging rotary jaw action (not just chomping up and down)		